

First Sgt William Curtis Betts

Born: Feb 28, 1797

Died: 1882 in Port
Huron

Period of Service: Civil War

Sources: Jessie Miner *Early
Days, RootsMagic*

“In a Wisconsin regiment for nearly four years.

He was a flag bearer in Memorial Day Service at Bethel Church, and remembered companions from the Civil War who had died—Henry Miner, William Bradshaw, Charles Johnson.

In 1825 he married Almira Amelia Darrow; later he was married to a woman named Margaret.”