JG, Carolyn Koyen

Part of the Sorenson family, born to Mae Ottesen Sorenson and Christian M. Sorenson on Town Line Road. She was a very smart girl who was listed in "Who's Who in America". Was a nurse, and did oil painting. Cousin of Carolyn Koyen. Lived in house where Don and Susan Green live.

Clara Jessen said, "She was the smartest girl" she had ever taught. She lived in the family log cabin the first ten years of her life. She did a painting of the log cabin which is hanging in Carolyn Koyen's home. She had two brothers, Elvin and Glenn.

She rose to become Dean of nurses at the Colorado State Mental Hospital. She was invited to deliver a lecture in England when she became sick and had to have her pancreas removed.
