Was in US Coast Guard, and stationed running a LORAN station on an atoll in the middle of the Pacific during the Viet Nam War. He would have stayed in the Coast Guard but hated what he was doing so got out. He bought Vi and Bill's Liquor store in Jackson Harbor, and eventually sold it to W. Schutz to start Sievers School for Fiber Arts. He then built Brothers Two Liquors with brother Mack. Jim and Mack also own the Townline Motel, and the Storage warehouse. Jim also continues in the construction business on the Island.

Married to Marsha Greenfeldt. Son of Joy and Russ Gunnlaugsson, who were married on 10/19/1946.
