

George W. Lee

Born

Died:

Period of Service: Civil War

Sources: J Miner Early Days

“Lived on the Island in the early fifties, enlisted in the 10th Minnesota Infantry and served to the end of the war, seeing plenty of hard service. He was once buried in the sand by a cannonball. The boys had to dig him out and he came home. He now lives in Minnesota” (J Miner)

No mention in RootsMagic.