

Gerald Thorarinson

Born

Died:

Period of Service: WW II

Source: Monument, B10F2a
JG

He was at Camp Hood, TX, as a range officer with a tank destroyer replacement training center. He was with the Army at Guadalcanal.

His father left family on Island and went to California. Married again in California and had a family. One of the Island girls married a Voight. Nathan Greenfeldt was in California and met him.

His parents were Theodore Paul Thorarinson and Sarah Johnson (4/17/189-1/21/1929). They lived in a place east of Vic Cornell's place on Lake View and had several children including Kenneth, Janet, Ted and two others.