

John Warren

Born:

Died:

Period of Service

Sources: Jesse Miner History of Rock Island

“John Warren fished there (around Rock Island) in 1869. He had served in a Wisconsin regiment and was badly wounded in the shoulder.” He lived on Harrison’s Point and “thus the point has been owned by soldiers continuously for 58 years and has had an even dozen American soldiers residing there.”